In addition, importance will be placed on applicant's involvement in building a just society and other personal circumstances that illustrate their positive participation in their community at large. Applicants need to clearly establish their credentials in light of these criteria as the National Association of Seadogs, is a community service organization committed in fighting constraints militating against the attainment of a just society and in providing these scholarships, it seeks to encourage and reward positive community service and involvement.
5. The Selection Committee will comprise members of The National Association of Seadogs (NAS), Sancta Bermuda.
